

Of Interest to WOMEN

Clubs

This is the week to entertain the annual meeting of Oklahoma P. E. N. Society, a national organization which has a particularly strong following in this section of the south.

Mrs. Winona Reeves of Keokuk, Iowa, former supreme president of the organization, is to be the honor guest of the sessions, which are to be held in the assembly room of the Y. W. C. A. home, and tickets for a luncheon to be given to both exhibitors are profitable. The attendance is expected to reach 100.

The Tulsa Council of Jewish Women will hold its annual election of officers Wednesday afternoon in the public library.

The next meeting of the Collegiate Alumnae association of Tulsa will be held Saturday, May 19, in the public library, with reports of the national meeting recently held in St. Louis, by Mrs. Baleigh R. Shadley and Mrs. Rosalie Conkling, as features of the program.
